CARL SCHURZ PASSES AWAY AS THOUGH FALLING INTO SLEEP ROCKEFELLER'S

Great Publicist's End Peaceful, Without Pain.

LAST ACT IS OF LOVE.

Seeks to Embrace His Friend and Physician, but Fails.

Carl Schurz, the veteran editor and publicist, died at 4.35 o'clock this morning. His end was peaceful. Two hours after midnight Mr. Schurz became un conscious. He did not revive and passed away as though falling into sleep.

Around the deathbed were Mr. Schurz's son, Carl L. Schurz; his daughters Misses Agatha and Marianna Schurz his widowed sister, Mrs. Jussen, of Milwaukee; his business partner, Edward Pretorious, of St. Louis, and his lifelone friend and physician, Prof. Abraham Jacobi.

The group of watchers had been in the death chamber for hours, as the certainty of a fatal ending had been apparent from nightfall. Early yesterday the distinguished patient showed some improvement, but in the afternoon a new attack of pulmonery oedema developed. The pulse and temperature rose and the periods of coma became more frequent.

Intellect Remained Kerr.

Many distinguished persons called at the house during the afternoon, but they were not allowed to enter the sick room. Mr. Schurz, however, was informed of their visit. Almost up to the lest his intellect remained keen, and he inquired about those who came to see him. Their oards were brought to him and he showed evidences of pleasure when the names were read off.

He spoke in feeble whispers to the members of his family, and just before the final attack of coma came be tried to reach up and place his arm about the neck of Dr. Jacobi, who sat on the edge of his bed. The effort was too much for him, the arm dropped back feebly, and with a look of affection on his face for his long-time friend, Mr. Schurz closed his eyes never to open them again For an hour his breathing was troubled. Then his respiration grew more and more feeble and finally ceased.

Funeral Probably Thursday.

Edward Pretorious, partner of Mr. liche Post, who has been in charge of reached a critical stage, said that the interment would probably take place Thursday, but that no definte arrangements regarding the funeral would be

In Parls he was a correspondent for German papers. In England, like other exlies, he gave lessons in his own language with some success. The year 1852 found him in the United States, and so good use did he make of his time that in 1857 he was Republican casalidate for Lieutenant-Governor of Wisconsin. In the meantime he had learned English and earned a reputation as an orator, so that when in 1858 he made a lecture tour through New England, in which he denounced the policy of Stephen A. Douglas, he became in a certain sense a national convention in 1869. President Lincoln made him Minister to Spain, but he resigned to enter the army at the opening of the civil war. In 1862 he was commissioned a Brigaider-General of voitinteers and was assigned to command a division in the corps of his friend. Gen. PASTOR QUITS

Sudden Resignation of Rector Surprises the Congregation.

Rufus P. Johnston, pastor of the Fifth ignation to take effect June 30, 1908."

When his letter of resignation was lead neither of the Rockefellers was in church. Those who heard the pastor announce that he had decided to seek other pastures were stunned. There are those who say that Dr Johnston has decided to leave the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church because of the Bible class over which young John D.

"The work of the Bible class has nothing to do with my biving the I shall sever my connection with the church about June 30." Dr. Johnston was asked if he would remain until a successor was appointed. "I shall leave the church probably about June 30," he answered. "My wife and I expect to go abroad for a

This is the letter in part that Dr. Johnston read to his congregation: "Dear Friends-With painful reluctance and deep sorrow I beg to submit to you my resignation as paster. The contract existing between the church and pastor calls for a three months' notice on the part of either party thereto in order to effect a dissolu-tion of the relations, but I hope it may be agreeable to the church for the res-

No one knew that Mr. Johnston was to resign until yesterday, when he read his letter of resignation at the morning services. His letter of resignation caused surprise. Dr. Johnston has been unceasing in his work for the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church and he has been an ardent supporter of the Rockefellers.
